

Cardon Children's Medical Center names new CEO

MESA, Ariz. (Aug. 26, 2016) - Justin Bradshaw recently was named chief executive officer for Cardon Children's Medical Center.

In this critical role, Bradshaw will work to develop and expand comprehensive pediatric services at the hospital. He will also lead, along with dyad partner Dr. David Moromisato, Banner Health's pediatric service line in Arizona.

Bradshaw comes to Banner from Children's Hospital & Medical Center, or CHMC, in Omaha, Neb., where he served as the vice president of Clinical and Ancillary Services. CHMC is a 146-bed freestanding children's hospital which provides expertise in more than 30 pediatric specialty services across a five-state region. Prior to joining CHMC, Justin served as the Operations Manager for Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., and led hospital-wide initiatives at Stanford Health Care, Intermountain Healthcare and Nationwide Children's Hospital in Columbus, Ohio.

Cardon Children's Medical Center provides pediatric care for children, from newborns to teens. Services include Emergency care, a Level III neonatal intensive care unit, general pediatrics, surgical and rehabilitation services, hematology/oncology, urology, gastroenterology, neurology, outpatient services and children's wellness community education.
